making quilts with her Nana at last...

Nana, Nana let's make
a quilt...

just
... let's do it now, you and me.

With buttons and sashes,
On cotton and silk...

... let's do it now, just you and me.

Open the sewing box,
What do I see?...

just
... let's do it now, you and me.

A long tape to measure me,

One, Two, and Three...

just
... let's do it now, you and me.

I say all my colours,
pinks, yellows, and blues,

Some oranges, two purples, and a lavender
too...

just
... let's do it now, you and me.

You cut out the quilt squares, I line them in rows,

Nana, careful with scissors
'cause they're sharp don't you know...

just
... let's do it now, you and me.

I play with the ribbons, the buttons, the thread,

You stretch out the tape
and measure my bed...

just
... let's do it now, you and me.

We follow the pattern,
To see where each goes...

just
... let's do it now, you and me.

You cut all the ribbons,
I bend all the bows...

just
... let's do it now, you and me.

Then some pieces fall
down,
And they tickle my toes...

... let's do it now, <sup>just</sup> you and me.

You oil up the wheel,
I watch it go 'round...

just
... let's do it now, you and me.

Click, tick goes the needle, click, tick up and
down...

Then I giggle and giggle
when I hear that sound...

just
... let's do it now, you and me.

You sew, tiny hearts
with soft down you've
stuffed in,
as each one is finished
I push in the pins...

just
... let's do it now, you and me.

Tucked inside one heart
buried deep, deep, down
deep,

Rests some lavender flowers that help me to sleep...

... let's do it now, <sup>just</sup> you and me.

You iron all the seams, I stand back cause its hot,
You tie on the ribbon and I make the knot...

just
... let's do it now, you and me.

It's coming together, just
a bit more to go,

You tie the last thread
and it's ready to show...

just
... let's do it now, you and me.

My eyes, now grow heavy,
it's time for a nap,

I pick up my teddy,
slide down off your lap...

... let's do it now, just you and me.

Puff, puff-up the pillows,
and wrap me up tight,
Read me a story then
turn off the light...

... let's do it now, just you and me.

Feeling comfy and
snuggly, in our quilt
warm and sweet,
It's the end of our day
and I drift off to sleep
'cause...

just
... we did it now, you and me.
