

Lets make a fire!

by
Nada

Daddy, Daddy,
let's make a fire...

...let's do it now just you and me.

The woodpile's
getting low,
Mama's stove no
longer steams...

...let's do it now just you and me.

And grandma's waiting for the
fire,
so she can heat
her tea...

...let's do it now just you and me.

With an axe upon
your shoulder,
and the saw beside
your knee...

...let's do it now just you and me.

We will hike
into the forest,
search out the
perfect tree...

...let's do it now just you and me.

Then swing and
chop and swing
and chop,
how strong your
arms must be...

...let's do it now just you and me.

'Stand back'- you
lift me over,
I am safe while
falls the tree...

...let's do it now just you and me.

The you drag away
the branches,
While I gather up
the leaves....

...let's do it now just you and me.

We pull our treasure
homeward,
On the cart our
fresh cut tree...

...let's do it now just you and me.

You chop the same size pieces
And I stack them
one, two, three...

...let's do it now just you and me.

Light the wood
all rough and
ready,
I'll stand back
most carefully...

...let's do it now just you and me.

Soon we will
have our crackly
fire,
For the hungry
family...

...let's do it now just you and me.

Now you will
take the embers,
to the house
where mama
waits...

...let's do it now just you and me.

There she has made some bread
and soup,
Must wait so
patiently...

...let's do it now, just you and me.

Mama's stove heats
up the kitchen,
and my family
warms their feet...

...let's do it now just you and me.

Mama calls us to
the table,
Hurray! It's finally time to eat...

...let's do it now just you and me.

So let's gather
'round our fire,
All warm and safe
and free,

And all will know by our fire's glow that...

...we did it now, just you and me.
